

Sharing Our Faith

I will receive a lot of disagreement on this because you believe you had the best mom (and rightly so) but here I go anyway. In my life I have benefitted from the GREATEST MOMS of all time. First, I had the blessing of growing up with my own mother who was a true sacrificial mom. She gave up so much in order for me to have a great childhood. I was her 'baby' by many years as I had adult siblings when I was born, and I was certainly spoiled by being the youngest. Next, I had the joy of coming to know Lisa's mom. Nan, as she was called, was an example of a woman who never gave up and always put her children first. Finally, I have had a first-row seat to witness the mothering style of my own Lisa. I only wish I were half the parent she has always been, first as a mom and now as a grandmother or as we call her, the Nana Bear (like a big cuddly bear).

Today, besides doing primarily what we do every Lord's Day in putting God first in our worship, praise, and adoration, we also honor the contributions of our mothers. God knew what He was doing when He created the role of mother. The moms of 70 West display God's love, compassion, comfort, support, and encouragement on a daily basis.

Thank you, moms, for being God's gift to your families. May God receive the glory for the great things He has done through you.

I continue the sermon series on Mark by looking at the rest of chapter 11 and the beginning of chapter 12. In our study today Jesus has entered Jerusalem for his last visit and the cross is just days away. Each day of this final week will present essential teaching moments. If you don't have a Sunday/Wednesday class, please join me in the auditorium as I take a detailed look at the last week in Jerusalem. That detail look will begin in next Sunday's class.

Summer Camp Information

Let's just be real about 2020: NONE of us enjoyed it! I do not want you to miss any event in the summer of 2021! In an effort to avoid missing anything, I will continually remind of what you need to do ASAP.

Indian Creek Youth Camp

Go to indiancreekyouthcamp.org and register. We will be going Kyle Gilpin's week. The dates are June 13th-18th. This will be an additional camp this year which mean each family will be responsible for the cost for their children. There is an early bird price. So get in early. Remember the camp is first come, first served.

Camp Ida

Each family needs to go to campida.org and register individually. After your child is registered and we have a completed medical release form, I will put your child's name on my list. I will give this list to the proper folks and the church will pay the fee for this camp. The dates are July 11th-16th. This camp registration is also first come, first served. There are only 40 male camper spots and 40 female camper spots. I cannot hold spots so get this task completed ASAP.

Other Activities

There will be activities every week. Watch the e-mails from the office and the REMIND app for details. It is our desire to be active and together. I want you to have an unbelievable summer, but I also need you to complete the simple tasks. It all begins in just a few weeks...
